

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

- Harvester
- Buncher
- Forwarder
- Excavator

At JCH Harvest we offer a safe and productive environment that fosters a culture of growth and development for individuals. We are a family-based company that delivers CTL hardwood plantation products across the North & North West of the state.

Opportunities exist for harvesting professionals that are interested in developing with a company and extending their abilities and repertoires. Available to them will be the utilisation of the latest technology and mechanical harvesting manufacturing maintained and upgraded for the purpose of operator ergonomics and efficiencies.

Attractive remuneration packages are offered for all operators with the security of long term employment and opportunity.

Multiple operators wanted for operations in the North West and North East.

To express interest, or if you would like further details on the above please email lauren@jchharvest.com.au

Alternatively, visit jchharvest.com.au to fill in an application.

All applications are strictly confidential.